There is no provision in the Cadal rules authorising the condonation of the break caused by resignation, as the period of break has exceeded 12 months. Please see arts 270 (a), 272 and 275 of the Mysore Service Regns.

But according to art 476 of the M S Regns the question may be considered at the time of his retirement.

Being the period does not exceed 2 years allowed by Rule for Govt. discretion can be exercised. This may be noted when Mr. B's name is moved for appointment to the

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Revenue and General Departments

Sir,

I joined Government Service as an Assistant Master in the Chitaldroog High School on the 26th June 1893, and on the 1st March 1895, I obtained leave without allowances for 18 months to join the Madras Law College in order to qualify myself for the legal profession. The period of leave expired on the 1st September 1896, and my application for a further extension of leave for 18 months was refused. As I had yet to undergo a course of nearly 18 months to complete the B.L. terms, it was unpracticable for me to rejoin my appointment, and I was consequently obliged to tender my resignation on the 1st September 1896.

Having entered Government Service again as Probationary

Assistant Commissioner on the 27th September 1897, there has been a break in my service, of 12 months and 27 days, which I beg the Government may be pleased to condone

I beg to remain,
